

Practice Managers Professional Network

For practice managers

Northern Queensland Primary Health Network (NQPHN) invites practice managers across Mackay to an education and network meeting.

NQPHN and the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Health Service (ATSICHS) Mackay will provide an overview of the Integrated Team Care (ITC) program and Q&A session.

Practice managers are encouraged to utilise this opportunity to provide feedback, raise what is needed to help address some of the long-standing issues in primary care management, and discuss how we can better support practice managers and frontline staff.

Presenters:

- ATSICHS Mackay Indigenous Health Project Officer Sharni Dorante
- ATSICHS Mackay ITC Team.

Lunch, tea, and coffee will be provided.
