

Job Advertisement: General Practitioner (GP) – Andergrove Medical Centre

Location: Mackay, Queensland

Type: Full-Time/Part-Time

About Us:

At Andergrove Medical Centre, we're not just a healthcare facility; we're part of the Mackay community's fabric. Conveniently located in a family-friendly suburb near schools and shops, we've cultivated strong partnerships with local pharmacies and pathology labs. We're dedicated to delivering holistic, patient-centered care that truly serves our community's needs. Now, we're seeking a General Practitioner who shares our commitment to excellence and well-being to join our close-knit team.

Job Overview:

As the General Practitioner, you will be responsible for delivering high-quality medical care across all age groups. This role requires excellent clinical skills, the ability to build patient relationships, and a commitment to integrated, family-focused healthcare.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct thorough physical examinations and review patients' medical histories.
- Diagnose and offer treatments for both acute and chronic conditions.
- Provide preventive care measures and impart health education to patients spanning various age groups.
- Order necessary tests as required and recommend apt treatment modalities.
- Offer coordinated care for patients having multiple health concerns.
- Prescribe medications and counsel patients on beneficial lifestyle adjustments.
- Maintain an accurate and up-to-date record of patient information, always ensuring their confidentiality.

Requirements:

- Medical degree from a recognized institution.
- Current registration status with the Medical Board of Australia.
- Minimum of 3 years of post-graduate experience.
- Strong commitment to ethical practice and compliance with healthcare regulations.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- A sincere dedication to continual professional development.
