The RACGP OSCE exam is based on the candidate’s ability to demonstrate their clinical skills, communication skills and professional attitudes. The key component to passing this exam is the candidate’s communication skills and is often the reason for failure. Our QRME GPrEP OSCE Intensive program helps candidates focus on their communication and clinical skills. The workshop runs face to face and candidates will be given multiple tips to enhance their skills and language for the examination.

Registration via website: www.qrme.org.au

Or contact Carmen at grprep@qrme.org.au | 07 4638 7999 |